..... advice from the greatest

GENERATION

Today's seniors are living extraordinary lives. At seventy years old in 2018, they've experienced leadership under thirteen presidents, the Civil Rights Movement, the Moon Landing, early Rock n' Roll – Elvis Presley, the Beatles, the fall of the Berlin Wall, the rise of the internet and so much more. Asking for advice from your grandparents can reveal the senior truths they have on a multitude of topics including faith, relationships, success, failure and career. After all, they've been there and have the best advice for younger generations.

We sat down with our Members and had them share their best advice on a money, love, education, faith and general advice to live your life by. Their candid answers gave us unique insight into their incredible life experiences.

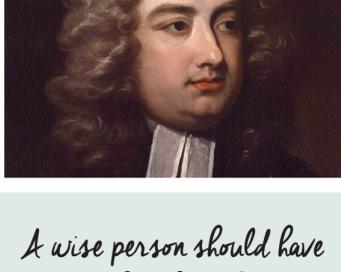

FINANCIAL ADVICE

A penny saved is a penny earned!

Save, save, save!
Now I have enough to live.

Be a saver,
not a spender.

If you see something you want, be willing to work for it.

A wise person should have money in their head, but not in their heart.

- Jonathan Swift

A gallon of milk was	$.82	THEN	NOW	A gallon of milk is	$2.27
The average income was	$3,216	1950	2018	The average income is	$49,445

LOVE ADVICE

A loving heart is a truest wisdom.

Always tell the truth.
That way you don't have to remember what you said.

Be thoughtful and dependable.

Don't let anyone intervene to break up your marriage.

Some people care too much. I think it's called love.

- Winnie the Pooh

In 1950, men were getting married at age 22 and women at age 20. Today men are getting married at age 29 and women at age 27.

EDUCATION ADVICE

Give a man a fish and you feed him for a day; teach a man to fish and you feed him for a lifetime.

Stay focused, do your best.

Continue your higher education.

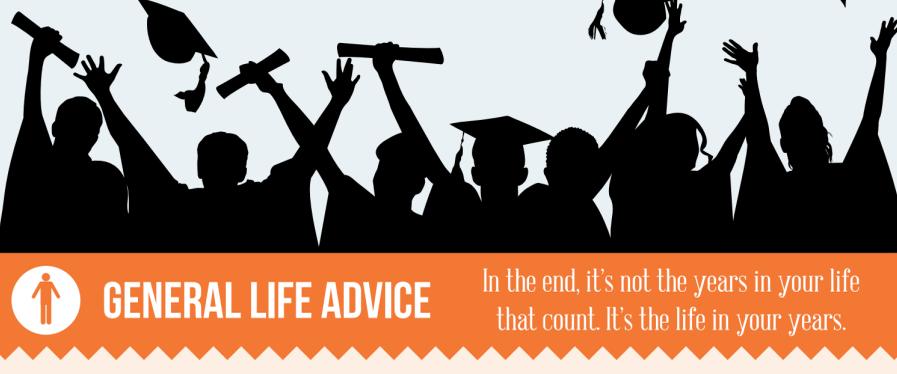

Spell correctly, always!

Tell me and I'll forget. Show me and I may remember. Involve me and I learn.

- Benjamin Franklin

In 1950, roughly 431,000 people earned Bachelor's Degrees. Today, roughly 1,895,000 people earned Bachelor's Degrees.

GENERAL LIFE ADVICE

In the end, it's not the years in your life that count. It's the life in your years.

No experience is a failure if you learned something.

Never say anything you can't take back, words hurt and once spoken cannot be erased.

Be patient and have a positive attitude.

Laugh!

All our dreams can come true, if we have the courage to pursue them.

- Walt Disney

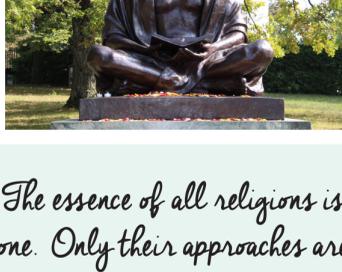

FAITH ADVICE

Faith is taking the first step, even when you don't see the whole staircase.

We are all part of the human family, be kind to one another.

Give your heart to and serve the Lord.

Do unto others... the Golden Rule.

The essence of all religions is one. Only their approaches are different.

- Mahatma Gandhi
